

20. The communication arrangement as claimed in claim 15, wherein during an implementation of the Internet in accordance with the standard H.323, a gatekeeper is provided for the call control between the servers and the gateway and the access device.

In the Abstract:

Please replace the Abstract with the Substitute Abstract attached herewith.